AMER. NUMISM. & ARCHAEOLOG. SOC.
FROM BENJAMIN BETTS

BROOKLYN, 29th Oct. 1874.

I beg respectfully to call the attention of Collectors to the fact of its being very necessary, when sending their orders, that they look to the date of the Sale, and make sure the letter will reach me by the early mail of the morning of the 27th November, as after that both my son and myself are to be found at the Auctioneers. It would be safer when so very near the time of sale, to address to the care of the Auctioneers, as several important orders failed to reach me at the two last sales in time to be executed.

I also suggest that no bills, or even currency, be sent in payment, unless in a registered letter, which only costs eight cents in addition to the postage. Three cases have occurred within the last month where the parties have lost their money by sending without the registration fee.

Faithfully,

EDWARD COGAN.
